INTERCONTINENTAL® TORONTO YORKVILLE AMONG 16 BRAND PROPERTIES ACROSS THE AMERICAS TO FEATURE “FIT FOR ROYALTY” MENU WITH PROCEEDS BENEFITING LOCAL FOOD BANK

The InterContinental Hotels & Resorts brand and the Chefs of World Leaders shine spotlight on hunger through special menu and philanthropic launch event in NYC

Toronto (July 24, 2013) – From Sunday, July 28 to Sunday, Aug. 4, the InterContinental Toronto Yorkville and 15 other InterContinental properties across the U.S., Canada, Costa Rica and Argentina will offer guests and local residents dishes literally fit for a king. The InterContinental Hotels & Resorts brand and members of Le Club des Chefs de Chefs (C.C.C.) -- the organization of chefs to the world’s Heads of State -- are presenting a “Fit for Royalty” menu in conjunction with their U.S visit, which will feature the dishes they often prepare for their respective world leaders. A portion of the proceeds from this menu will be donated to local food banks in the participating hotels’ cities. The purpose of this initiative is to draw attention to the borderless issue of hunger.

The recipes being prepared, which are not necessarily haute cuisine, provide a view of home-style cooking from the first families of the world. Ten dishes created by the personal chefs of the President of the United States, the Queen of England, Queen of Denmark, Chancellor of Germany, President of India, Prime Minister of Canada, Prince of Monaco – and other world leaders recipes will be featured on the menu. The InterContinental Toronto Yorkville will include the following Chefs of World Leader dishes in Signatures Restaurant:

- Chopped Summer Salad with Pecans and Tarragon Dressing - Cristeta Comerford - Chef to United States President, Barack Obama
- Maple & Canadian Whole Grain Mustard Glazed Cedar Planked Salmon - Tim Wasylko - Chef to Prime Minister, Stephen Harper of Canada
- Anglesey Eggs - Mark Flanagan - Chef to Her Majesty the Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain
- Butter Chicken - Machindra Kasture - Chef to President Pranab Kumar Mukherjee of India

10 percent of the proceeds made from the above menu items will benefit the Second Harvest

InterContinental Toronto Yorkville: was the very first InterContinental hotel to be built in Canada and opened in 1990. To date there are still only 3 InterContinental Hotel in Canada and 28 InterContinental hotels in North America.

Yorkville was chosen as the perfect site for the InterContinental Toronto Yorkville due to its prime location and cultural history. In the 1960's, Yorkville flourished as Toronto's bohemian cultural centre. It was famous for nurturing Canada's most noted musical talents, including Joni Mitchell, Neil Young and Gordon Lightfoot. Yorkville was also known as the Canadian capital of the hippie movement.

As construction and change in the landscape evolved during the 70's, Yorkville transitioned into an upscale shopping, restaurant, galleries and museums haven. Bata Shoe Museum being the only shoe museum in North America and the Royal Ontario Museum being Canada's largest museum.

The InterContinental Toronto Yorkville quickly became host to the 'stars' – during the Toronto International Film Festival, as well known celebrities such as Harrison Ford frequently visited our Proof Bar and SkyLounge Patio. The hotel was also one of 3 hotels to be host to the 2006 FIFA Men's U20. In 2010 our hotel was host to the White House Press Head Quarters for the US media during the G20 and the only hotel to be used outside of the security zone.

These are only a few exciting factors about the hotel besides the many loyal employees that have been here for many years offering superb service, and they are hoping to welcome you, your family and friends to experience all the hotel and local area has to offer. and international hospitality. The Club des Chefs des Chefs, which is seen as the world's most exclusive gastronomic society, has extremely strict membership criteria: to be accepted into this highly elite club, one needs to be the current personal chef of a head of state. If he or she does not have a personal chef, members can be the executive chef of the venue that hosts official State receptions. One member is admitted per country with the exception of China, which has two seats. One of the society's primary purposes is to promote major culinary traditions and to protect the origins of each national cuisine. The Club des Chefs des Chefs also aims to develop friendship and cooperation between its members, who have similar responsibilities in their respective countries. www.club-des-chefs-des-chefs.com/
